

It Pays to be Protected by a Health Policy To Take the Place of Your WAGES IF YOU GET SICK!

Such was the case of D. D. Congleton at 308 Point St., Clarksburg West Va., who took out a Health and Accident Policy with the W. Va. Casualty Co. on Oct. 20, 1905, took sick Nov. 12, 1905; was sick two weeks and received full amount of Indemnity on Nov. 28th, 1905. Hundreds of claims being met in like manner. The Indemnity being paid by the Insurance Companies, help meet Doctor's bills and other heavy expenses while sick or hurt. Can you afford to lose your time and meet these bills yourself? Better have the

THE LARGEST OF A...
As soon as the apartment house was ready for occupancy the janitor placed a "Rented" sign in several of the second and third story windows. When the agent saw the placards he said a good many things, not exactly complimentary to the discretion of the janitor.
"What did you stick all those notices up for?" he asked.
"Because," was the reply, "the apartments are really rented. I thought it a good plan to let folks know they were going off so quickly."
"That is all right in principle," said the agent, somewhat mollified, "but you didn't go about it in the right way. That is not the proper kind of a notice. Never use the word 'rented' in a high class apartment. Always say 'leased'. It makes a better impression. 'Rented' sounds cheap. Any agent who wants his apartments to bring a big price will tell you that."—New York Press.

THE SHORT AND.
Brewer says the sign is called "unders, amper, or amper." It is sometimes called "short and." In olden times it was known as amperand but that word long ago fell into disuse. It is simply a contracted and rapidly made form of the Latin et. The name amperand is derived from "amper see and"—that is, a single symbol which in itself is and. Amperand meaning & is used in chapter 21 of "Adam Bede" (1850); also in a poem in Punch of April 17, 1860. The first stanza in the poem alluded to is as follows:

Of all the types in a printer's hand
Command me to the amperand.
For he's the gentleman (seems to me)
Of the typographical company.
Oh, my nice little amperand,
My precious, beautiful amperand,
Nothing that Codrus ever planned
Equals my elegant amperand!

Prussian Dairymaids.
In the great dairies in west Prussia the dairy maids are not permitted to wear corsets. The different grades of proficiency are indicated by the caps worn. The milkmaids wear white caps, the pupils white also, with the addition, however, of black velvet bands, and the dairy teachers caps with silver lace. Many daughters of the landed nobility take a course in this work, but all alike wear the uniform prescribed. This is not a skirt but waist and knickerbockers. It is found that this is the most cleanly and comfortable and serviceable in an occupation subject to various accidents.

Risk Versus Security.
There never was a harder master than the uncertain. "Nothing venture nothing win" is a true proverb, and sometimes it is a good guiding principle. If a single question and not a general principle were under discussion we might say that the conditions warrant a venture. As a rule we are profoundly convinced that a sure dollar is better than a possible $10; that comfort is always preferable to wealth in a lottery. The one thing to be avoided above all others is instability of income. This is not to suggest that under all conditions a man should prefer the settled and sure—Independent.
